

23 November 2012

I write following your FOI request dated 12.11.12 regarding Mr Sean Price, in which you request;

"...that he received a full pension but he did not receive a lump sum payment which he would have been entitled to had he not been dismissed. My question is how much would that lump sum have been and how would it have been calculated."

This request has been handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

I can confirm that the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner do hold this information.

Regarding your request I can now inform you that I have completed my enquiries and that my reply on behalf of the Police and Crime Commissioner is as follows.

Mr Sean Price was not entitled to any lump sum payment.

I can confirm that the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner has a complaints procedure.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request a review by writing to:

Chief of Staff
