

THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST:

For PCC approval following agreement at the funding approvals meeting held on 10 August 2016.

Title:

The Right Hook

Executive Summary:

Redcar Development Trust (RDT) is a small local charity which hosts Redcar Amateur Boxing Club (RABC).

RDT has three key objectives: 1. To help local residents overcome disadvantage and support them in becoming good citizens; 2. To help local people access meaningful employment and educational opportunities that set them on a positive life pathway; 3. To provide support for local community groups and individuals that are in turn providing opportunities to improve quality of life.

As well as offering opportunities for individuals to improve boxing skills, the Club (with the support of England Boxing, Tees Valley County Sports Partnership, Redcar and Cleveland Council) also reaches out to disadvantaged and excluded young people, teaching them how to become good citizens, instilling a work ethic, encouraging community pride and respect and offering access via RDT to volunteering, training and employment opportunities.

The Right Hook project supports the PCCs priorities of tackling re-offending, working together to make Cleveland safer and securing the future of our communities.
