THE POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER FOR CLEVELAND

DECISION RECORD FORM

REQUEST: For PCC approval.

Title: Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB) Fund

Executive Summary:

Antisocial Behaviour (ASB) is criminal behaviour and it blights our communities.

A key priority in the 2021-24 Police and Crime Plan is 'Tackling antisocial behaviour head on', and the Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) has developed this dedicated one-off ASB fund to seek innovative applications that work towards reducing and diverting people away from ASB and that encourage positive solutions to address and overcome the issues that communities face.

The Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) made available £50,000 from the Police Property Act Fund to enable local charitable organisations to access a one-off grant that works towards one (or more) of the below points:

- Reducing ASB
- Diverting people away from ASB
- Encouraging positive solutions that overcome the issues that communities face as a result of ASB
- Building resilience in communities to respond to ASB
- Supporting early intervention approaches to ASB

Applicants were eligible to apply for a maximum of £5,000 per project to be delivered during the period April 2022 – September 2022.

Seven charities applied for the funding which were supported by the PCC, these include;

Boys Brigade - £1,000

The Moses Project - £5,000

The Wharton Trust - £5,000

Community Ventures - £5,000

The Corner House Youth Project in partnership with Barnardos, Cultivate Tees Valley and 'Lads like Us - £4,839

The Shack - £5,000

The Message Trust - £5,000

Three other applications were received that did not fit the criteria for the Police Property Act Fund as they were not a registered charity, however given the quality of the applications the PCC agreed to support through other funds (Community Safety Initiative Fund). These included:

Billingham Boxing Academy - £4,920

Hartlepool Huskies - £5,000

Hemlington Lynx - £5,000

Decision:

To approve the funding to the organisations set out in the Executive Summary.
